From the Host Pastor's Pen

What a delight it is to welcome you to the 165th Session of the Missouri Annual Conference. The parishioners of The Cathedral @ St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church have been praying, planning and preparing for this auspicious occasion. Steward Rosalie Bell, the matriarch of St. Paul, has given us great leadership in preparing to royally entertain you in the AME way.

We welcome all the Episcopal Leaders, Connectional Officers, Candidates, Presiding Elders, Pastors, Ministers, Delegates, Members and Visitors to St. Louis, the gateway to the West, and to the Mother Church of the 5th Episcopal District, oldest AME Church established west of the Mississippi River.

We extend a special welcome to our illustrious Presiding Prelate, Bishop Clement Fugh, and our vivacious Episcopal Supervisor, Lady Alexia Butler Fugh. Our Episcopal Leaders have led us with fervent love and spiritual guidance in this quadrennial. As we embark upon the theme "Kingdomtide", we are excited and ignited for what lies ahead, as our beloved Bishop shares with us meticulous attention to local Church growth, care, and the building of God's Kingdom.

The contents of this souvenir journal will be a memorable reflection of this historical session of the Missouri Conference, enabling us to savor and recall for generations to come. A special thanks to all who contributed to making this journal a spectacular treasure.

Lady Gail, Maestro Scooter, Nicholas Lamar, and the Family of St. Paul joins me in praising God from whom all blessings flow. In times like these, we invoke miraculous power upon our deliberations and our hearts and minds. May the Lord open to us His good treasure for this new age. Thanks for sharing and caring. We pray that this time together will bless you and be a moment of inspiration.

Be Blessed,

The Rev. Dr. Spencer Lamar Booker

African Methodist Episcopal Church
165th Session
Missouri Annual Conference
St. Louis, Missouri

Dear Honored Guests and Attendees:

On behalf of the City of St. Louis, it is my pleasure to welcome everyone attending the 165th Session of the Missouri Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church being held in St. Louis from October 9 through October 13, 2019.

Founded 204 years ago, the AME Church has membership in 20 Episcopal Districts in 39 countries on five continents. I am honored to recognize Presiding Prelate of the Fifth Episcopal District The Right Reverend Clement W. Fugh and Episcopal Supervisor Mrs. Alexia B. Fugh for their leadership of the AME Church providing many beneficial services and programs to the St. Louis community.

I hope that this conference will provide you with an opportunity to celebrate the time-honored traditions and many accomplishments of the AME Church, share best practices with colleagues, and renew old acquaintances.

For those of you who are visitors to St. Louis, I encourage you to take some time to stop by the many exciting attractions our city has to offer such as the Gateway Arch, the Science Center, Forest Park, the Art Museum, elegant restaurants, fine galleries and historic theaters.

Best wishes for a productive and enjoyable conference and a pleasant stay in our great city.

Sincerely,

Greetings to All Members, Delegates and Guests of the 165th Session of the Missouri Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church:

I was delighted to learn that St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church, under the outstanding religious leadership of Rev. Dr. Spencer Booker, is hosting the 165th Session of the Missouri Annual Conference. This is an eagerly anticipated conference and I am glad that it is being held in our Great City of St. Louis from October 9 – 13, 2019.

The Missouri Annual Conference is known for the exceptional quality of its inspirational messages and spiritual enlightenment. I know that Christians from around the State will come away empowered and emboldened by studying His Teachings, uplifted and filled with the Holy Spirit as never before.

I would like to welcome Presiding Prelate, The Right Reverend Clement W. Fugh and Episcopal Supervisor, Mrs. Alexis B. Fugh, to St. Louis. Both of these devoted Servants of God are highly respected and well-known for their great dedication and remarkable leadership abilities. Compassionate and spirit-filled, they work tirelessly to help others and draw them to the Lord.

As you go about participating in the Conference's many excellent meetings and workshops, I hope that time will permit you to enjoy St. Louis' famous hospitality and visit some of our city's many attractions.

On behalf of the residents of the First Congressional District of Missouri, I extend a warm welcome to each of you. Best wishes for a most memorable and successful conference. May God continue to surround you with His Blessings and with His Love.

Sincerely,

Wm. Lacy Clay

Congratulations on this year's 165th Session of the Missouri Annual Conference for St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church. I am excited you will be celebrating the traditions and accomplishments of the African Methodist Episcopal Church that was founded 204 years ago. Your service to fifteen states that comprise the Fifth Episcopal District has been outstanding and I thank you both.

These economic times call for thoughtful, tenacious leadership such as yours, which delivers confidence and stability to our communities. May you continue to enjoy professional success and maintain vitality with all of your charitable and civic efforts.

Thank you for your compassionate service. Our world is made better thanks to you both and your continued service to the church and the vast membership throughout the world.

Sincerely,
